Circle of Nations Wahpeton Indian School goes on an annual trip to the Target Center

BY CAMERON SUTPHIN
Reporter

The students at Circle of Nations Wahpeton Indian School look forward to their annual trip to see a Minnesota Timberwolves NBA basketball game. The school brought 40 students to the game on Naz Reid bobblehead night.

After the game, the students were able to go onto the court and take free throw shots.

Circle of Nations residential director Chris Kappes said each trip is special and full of memories.

"Their favorite parts of the trip was the game, the atmosphere, receiving a Naz Reid bobblehead and being able to attempt a free throw on the court after the game, Kappes said. "In the past, our students have been part of the fan tunnel and gave players a high five on the way to the court. This year it was getting on the court to take a shot. We try to make the experience as great as we can for our students."

The students saw the Timberwolves roll past the Milwaukee Bucks with a 129-105 victory.

During the NBA game, Anthony Edwards had 26 points and nine assists for the victors as the Timberwolves shot 21-of-41 from 3-point range.
