2025 Annual Meeting Walcott Township Annual Meeting 3/18/2025

Walcott Fire Hall.

Those in attendance were Township Supervisors Paul Huelsman, Matt Evans, and Chris Schmitz, Clerk Jen Skoog, John Pfingston, Nicki Zurn-Pfingston, Joshua Swisher, Jeri Wimpfheimer, Steve Schatzke, Kim Schatzke, Kelly Rustad, Vern Anderson, Kade Mitchell, Steven Roseuo, Mike Schell, David Staton, James O'Hara, Kelly Evanson, Ron Helie, Sandy Heglie, Dave Olson, Mark Erickson, Elizabeth Olsgaard, Laura Boyer, James Boyer Huelsman call the caucus meeting order. Skoog appointed James O'Hara as the meeting moderator. Huelsman called for nominations for two judges. Jeri Wimpfheimer and Kelly Evanson were nominated. Huelsman made a motion that nominations cease and seconded by Matt Evans, Jeri Wimpfheimer and Kelly Evanson were named judges. Motion carried. Caucus meeting adjourned.

Huelsman called the annual meeting to

Secretary's Report
The minutes from the 2024 annual meeting were read. Motion to approve was made by Chris Schmitz and seconded by Paul Huelsman, Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report
Treasurer's Report was read. Motion to accept as read was made by Chris

Schmitz and seconded by Kelly Rustad. Motion carried.

Old Business
Huelsman reported that the current Walcott Fire Hall is rapidly deteriorating and the Walcott Colfax Fire Department will be presenting a proposed new building for public vote on Thursday. The Township was approached with the opportunity to rent a stall for storage of the maintainer for $1,000/month, which also includes use of the meeting room and office facilities. Discussion was held. No further action needed at this time

A number of new signs have been put up, some are missing, and some have been shot. Signs are still needed for some minimum maintenance roads, and some faded signs need to be replaced. Residents are asked to report any signs that need to be

Last year, a number of culverts were replaced throughout the township. There are still a few that will need to be replaced in the near future.

New Business

Gravel Bids were received from 3 different companies – Rustad's, Camas & Krause Bros. The Board reviewed the bids and discussion was held. Schmitz motioned to accept all bids and have the supervisors decide what is best for the township as the time arrives, seconded by Evans. Carried.

Additional signs need to be posted to keep extra heavy trucks off the road near the truck repair shop. Discussion was held.

Kelly Rustad brought forth a concern that the annual meeting wasn't published in the Cass County Reporter. According to NDCC, the Township is required to publish in the Wahpeton Daily News, however, meeting information was sent to both publications. It is unclear as to why it was not published in the Cass County Reporter. Meeting notification was also voluntarily posted at the fire hall, in the post office, on the township website, and emailed out to all residents who have opted in to the Township email list.

Elections

Paul Huelsman's term is up and one su-pervisor position is for election. Evans nominated Paul Huelsman. No other nominations were made. Matt Evans moved to cease nominations and cast a unanimous ballot, seconded by Kelly Rustad, Paul Huelsman was elected as township supervisor.
Discussion was held regarding the Excess

Mill Levy proposal. The Township is proposing to increase the mill levy from 18 mills to 36 mills, the maximum allowed. Huelsman motioned to move forward with the vote, seconded by Evans. Clerk Skoog presented the vote results – 24 total voters, 22 in favor, 2 not in favor. Proposed Excess Mill Levy passes

Schmitz motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Evans. Meeting adjourned at approximately 8:52pm. Date: March 29, 2025 WDN001062
