Butte American Legion Post 270 to celebrate Memorial Day 2025

Submitted Article

The public is invited to help Butte’s American Legion Post 270 continue its decades-long tradition of observing Memorial Day by honoring deceased veterans. The morning starts with the color guard and firing squad performing short cemetery memorial services at Kongsberg at 8:00 a.m. and Ruso at 8:20. A ceremony to honor those lost at sea is then held at the Strawberry Lake beach at 8:45. Cemetery services are then held at Kief at 9:40, Balfour at 10:10, and at the Butte cemetery at 11:00. The activities wrap up with a program at Butte’s American Legion Hall at 11:30, which is followed by a potluck lunch. The Memorial Day program traditionally features the Danielson Family violins from Indiana, along with other local artists. This year’s talk will be given by Pastor Josh Burlison, who is a co-founder of Surrender Church in Minot. Prior to his ministry, Pastor Burlison served 12 years in the U. S. Army, including deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. Please come join us at one or all of these events.
