May your day begin with a SMILE on your face, a SONG in your heart and JOY in your soul!

Loren and Pat Larson went to West Fargo on Saturday to the home of Deanna and Brian Hoy. Later, Loren, Pat, Deanna, Brian, Landon, Madison, and Kaedyn went to the home of Brian's parents, Bill and Wanda Hoy. They went to help Bill celebrate his 70th birthday. Dana and Kayla Larson came to help Bill celebrate as well as Bill's brother and sister, Mark and Kris who flew in for the occasion.

Karen Sandness traveled to Hawley, MN last Sunday to spend time with grandson Mason Boeshans, while the rest of his family was in Dallas for the World Robotics competition in which grandson Cooper Boeshans participated. Karen returned home Thursday morning.

On Sunday, Larry and Karen attended an elementary track and field day for Nolan and Addison Wenaas in Moorhead.

On Sunday, Sheri Haro traveled to Fort Ransom and attended a Porch Pot planting demonstration put on by the Standing Rock Lutheran Church WELCA.

Do all the good you can and make as little fuss about it as possible. Charles Dickens

Monday, I traveled to Jamestown for an appointment and then to do some shopping. On the way home, I stopped to see Holly Froehlich for a little while. I also stopped in Litchville and met Faye Rockswold at the museum where we went through some pictures and picked out a few of the pictures that we will put into a memory quilt for Litchville's 125th Anniversary. The celebration will be on the 18th, 19th and 20th of July. Watch for more updates in the future.

Tuesday and Wednesday I worked at the park.

Thursday morning, I ventured to Verona to Bear Creek Lodge to gather with Helen Seefeldt, Christine Hatton and Karen Tillotson (Liz Stroh's Mom) for lunch and an afternoon of visiting and games. Karen and other members of her family were staying at the Lodge. Karen is from Zealand and was in the area for the graduation of Grace Stroh. We all had a very enjoyable afternoon.

Friday was a busy day. First, Diane Haisley and I cleaned the Food Pantry, getting it ready for open hours. Then we attended a Food Pantry meeting.

Saturday morning, I drove to Litchville to help clean the Litchville Museum and get it ready to open Memorial Day weekend.

Before church on Sunday, the congregation gathered to offer congratulations to our 2025 graduate, Jaret Alber. A nice lunch was served, and much visiting was done.

Sunday evening, Dan and I travelled to Fort Ransom for supper. We went to Dry Hollow Bar and Grill. The food was delicious. We visited with the owners and told them we would be back. Be sure to check them out sometime.
