This is a continuation of Block 6 of St. John's Cemetery. This part includes three more of the 19 unmarked graves in Block 6 – Alice Lapierre, Mrs. Joe Lapierre and Joe Lapierre.

Alice Lapierre 1903: Alice Lapierre was born in Minnesota on Sept. 1, 1885 to Joseph and Mary Lapierre. In the 1900 census, Alice was living with her parents and brother (William) and sister (Delia) on a farm in Superior Township, Eddy County, N.D. On April 27, 1902, she married Arthur H. Clute in Eddy County, N.D. Alice died on March 10, 1903 at the age of 17 years, 6 months and 9 days. Her obituary as taken from the New Rockford Transcript reads as follows:

"Mrs. Arthur Clute died Tuesday morning of blood poisoning following childbirth. The funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J.R. Beebe and the remains interred in the Catholic cemetery north of this city. The infant survived the mother until yesterday morning when it also passed away. The bereaved husband and father has the sympathy of the community in his sad loss."

Alice is buried in St. John's Catholic Cemetery in Block 6, Lot 12 beside her father and mother (Joseph and Mary) Lapierre and infant son Merton Arthur Clute who was born on Feb. 28, 1903 and died on March 12, 1903. Alice and Merton share a stone marking their graves.

Mrs. Joe Lapierre: Mary (Cosgrove) Lapierre was born on Feb. 8, 1849 to Patrick and Margaret (Duffy) Cosgrove in Newark, N.J. In the 1900 census, Mary and her husband, Joseph Lapierre, were living in Superior Township, Eddy County, N.D. on a farm with their son (William) and two daughters (Alice and Delia). In the 1920 census, Mary and Joseph were living with their daughter and son-in-law, George and Delia O'Keefe and there three sons, Joseph, George Jr. and John in Superior Township, Eddy County, N.D. Mary died on May 22, 1921 at her home on the farm at the age of 72 years. Her obituary as taken from the New Rockford Transcript reads as follows:

"Pioneer lady found dead in bed yesterday. End comes to Mrs. Joseph Lapierre sometime during Sunday night at home. Was one of the earliest pioneers. Mrs. Joseph Lapierre was found dead in her bed at the farm home three miles east of this city yesterday morning by her daughter, Mrs. George C. O'Keefe, when she went to call her mother for breakfast, death having occurred sometime during the night from heart failure. When she retired Sunday evening, she was in her usual health and she had been out automobile driving the greater part of the day and the finding of her body was a terrible shock to the family.

"Mrs. Lapierre was one of the pioneer ladies of the county, having settled on the homestead out east of this city with her husband in the early 80s and where she has resided ever since. She was a splendid Christian woman, a good neighbor, a dutiful wife and loving mother, and her departure will be sincerely mourned by the many friends and acquaintances she had in this county. She was 72 years of age and leaves to mourn her sudden demise besides her husband, three daughters and two sons, Mrs. George C. O'Keefe and Mrs. Paul Noack, who resides out east of this city; Mrs. Eliza Beausoliel of Crookston, Minn.; John of Fort Worth, Texas; Joseph Jr. of Onaway, Mont. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, word from the absent children being awaited before the date is set for the obsequies.

"To the bereaved husband and children the sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended in their hour of dark sorrow."

Mary is laid to rest in St. John's Catholic Cemetery in Block 6, Lot 12 beside her husband, Joseph and daughter, Alice (Lapierre) Clute and grandson Merton

Arthur Clute. Mary does have a stone marking her grave.

Joe Lapierre: Joseph LaPierre was born on April 2, 1838 in Montreal, Canada to Amable and Charlotte Lapierre. He emigrated to the U.S. in the year 1867 and was naturalized a U.S. citizen on March 22, 1883. His declaration took place in Pembina, N.D. In the 1900, 1910 and 1920 censuses, Joseph and his wife Mary were living on their homesteaded land in Superior Township, Eddy County, N.D. Joseph died on Dec. 4, 1926 at his home. His obituary taken from the New Rockford Transcript reads as follows:

"Pioneer resident of the county died at his home Saturday. Joseph Lapierre answers the call of the angel of death at ripe old age of 88. Had enjoyed unusual good health in past. Death follows illness of but a week's duration of old age and incident complications. Another of the old pioneers of Eddy County passed to his reward last Saturday evening at seven o'clock in the person of Joseph Lapierre, whose death occurred at that hour from the infirmities of old age, deceased being 88 years of age, at the time of his death. A very short illness preceded final dissolution, Mr. Lapierre having enjoyed a splendid Thanksgiving dinner with the past summer having enjoyed unusual good health for one so aged.

"Funeral services for the mortal clay were conducted at St. John's Catholic Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, a large concourse of the sorrowing friends of the deceased attending the last sad rites.

"Deceased had been a resident of this community for the past 35 years, locating on a homestead out east of this city which had been his home during that entire time. A staunch friend and a good neighbor, he made a friend of all in whom he came in contact and there is a large concourse of acquaintances throughout this section who will sincerely regret his demise. He leaves to mourn his departure seven children: Mrs. Eliza Boeausalil of Crookston, Minn.; Mrs. Paul Noack of this county; Joseph Lapierre of Ottawa, Mich.; John Lapierre of Hollywood, Fla; William Lapierre, a resident of Canada; Mrs. George C. O'Keefe of this county; and Mrs. Eva Rosenberg of Bay City, Mich., and to them the sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended in the death of their beloved father."

Joseph was laid to rest in St. John's Cemetery, New Rockford, N.D. in Block 6, Lot 12 beside his wife, Mary. Joseph does not have a stone marking his grave.
