Many offices have been interested in getting desk where the entire desk lifts up, and the current promotion is a larger savings than the 10% dis-count Vari typically offers the county. Gentzkow estimated that stand up desk, new chairs, and a mat would cost right around $30,000 for all offices in the building to get. Bishop moved, sec-onded by Olson to all county employees to get a stand-up desk, chair, and mat out of equipment and improvement. Olerud, Olson, Bishop, and Othership in the standard standard standard standard standard othership in the standard st Schwab were in favor. Anderson opposed. Motion passed.

Josh Differding arrived at 10:00am 10:00 Sheldon Shop Bid Opening One bid was received for a wood shop from Dif-ferding Construction. Bid bond, and contrac-tor's license were present. Quote came in over $200,000 which requires the county to get the Spoto of the short of the state of the short of the short Christopher Hubrig from Butler.

10:15 Motor Grader Bid Award RDO gave an appraisal price of $85,000 on the county's spare machine. Butler gave an apprais-al of $72,000 on the county's spare machine. The board asked the representatives questions comparing the John Deere to the Butler grad-er. Bishop moved, seconded by Olson to reject both bids and rewrite the bid specs so the board can compare the machines on an equally. Roll call vote was taken Anderson – yes, Olson – yes, Olerud – yes, Bishop – yes, and Schwab – yes. Motion carried Motion carried. The board took a break at 10:50am

Fallon Kelly advised the board to get a resolu-tion drawn up regarding SB2180. SB2180 allows for anyone in the audience to speak at the commission meeting even if not on the agenda. A resolution will help control what and how long an individual can speak. The City of Sheldon submitted a letter to the commission to annex in PGA. The board has no objections.

objections. American Legion Bullis submitted a gaming permit for electronic pull tab machines, along with the appropriate fee. Discussion was had. Bishop moved to approve the gaming permit. Schwab called for a second three times, motion died for lack of a second. Anderson moved, sec-onded by Olerul to decline the motion as Olerud's still own the Silver Prairie Saloon. All aye. Motion carried.

The next 5 county meeting will be held in Lam-

The county commission will be meeting with The City of Lisbon to discuss 130th Ave on June , at 6pm.

The tax assessor's office is rotating days of the week off and working four ten-hour days for the summer. Todd Anderson is the portfolio holder and he will check in with the tax office to discuss JDA was discussed. The board would like to look at options of dissolving the JDA board due to not being able to get a quorum most nights. The board asked Fallon Kelly to look into this. With nothing further to come before the board Bishop moved to adjourn at 12:40 pm, seconded by Olson. All aye Motion carried.
