Carson News Lois Stewart

Wow! we are finally getting rain. Several days of it, and more on the way. It's great to see crops peeking up and promises of bountiful crops. We are blessed.

Last Tuesday Carson Roosevelt School had their annual dinner theater. It was a 90's Country Music Awards show. They featured country music stars like Garth Brooks, Shania Twain, Dixie Chicks, and others. The students always serve the dinner to their guests, which we all love. They wore Country costumes, had every class dancing, besides singing the different stars famous songs.

Patsy Hertz, Jackie Stewart, and Justin Kraft practised all the music with the students for their performance. It couldn't have been better. Thank you, Roosevelt School, can't wait till next year.

My grand children Julian and Wrenley Stewart stopped by here last Friday for a visit. As usual my all-black cat Desi, skidded under the bed. Didn't come out till he heard the door close. Then later my grand daughter Brandi Maier and her baby Joey visited also. Same thing. But I got to hold Joey. Great day.

My Amaryllis plant has another blossom bud coming. That makes 4. Can't wait till they bloom.

My son Dan Stewart came by Sunday with a really nice cushion for my outside bench. I don't want to say "can't wait till it stops raining so I can put it out but..." Dan was on his way with family to Bismarck for grand daughter Kairi Stewarts' graduation at St. Mary's in Bismarck.

Amanda Dahners, Extension Service, will be at Carson Sr, Meals on Wednesday May 21 after the 11:30 meal for a session of chair bingo. You are welcome.

President Joe Biden has been diagnosed with "aggressive" Prostate cancer and it has spread to his bones. Our thoughts and prayers are with him and his family.

Happy birthday to my great grand daughter Kairi Stewart, great grand daughter Mia Snider, great grandson Layton Maher, Robert Heinz, Trisha Miller, Jack Fuchs.

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."

Romans 12:12.

till next time, Lois Stewart
