

Flasher receives money for walking-path

The North Dakota Industrial Commission today approved over $12.5 million in Outdoor Heritage Fund matching grants for 17 conservation and recreation projects benefiting North Dakotans across the state. The funding for this program, generated from oil and gas production tax revenue, supports projects that improve access to public and private lands for sportsmen and women, farming and ranching stewardship practices, fish and wildlife habitat preservation and outdoor recreation areas.

“The projects approved today embody the mission of this impactful program by enhancing conservation practices and creating new opportunities for North Dakotans to enjoy outdoor recreation activities” said Commission members in a joint statement. “We appreciate the efforts of the applicants in developing these projects and their dedication to improving quality of life for citizens across our great state.”

The approved projects total $12,549,185. They include:

- $2.5 million to the North Dakota Conservation District Employees Association for its North Dakota Statewide Tree Planting Initiative.
- $900,000 to the North Dakota Forest Service for its North Dakota Statewide Windbreak Renovation Initiative 5.0.

- $251,250 to the Grand Forks Park District for its Ryan Lake Prairie Trail and Outdoor Classroom.
- $155,450 to the City of Grand Forks for its Rivers Edge Fishing Enhancement Project.
- $51,599 to McLean County Water Resource District for its Lost Lake Dam Fish Passage.
- $1,089,375 to Pheasants Forever for its Public Access to Habitat (PATH) Program.
- $521,250 to the Fargo Park District for its Fargo Southwest Pond Regional Recreation Area.
- $1 million to the North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department for state park enhancement projects.

- $936,000 to Ducks Unlimited Inc. for its Cover Crop and Livestock Integration Project 4.
- $70,978 to the North Dakota 4-H Foundation for its 4-H Camp Project.
- $68,522 to the Nature Conservancy for its Grazing Management and Habitat Enhancement Project.
- $483,924 to Ducks Unlimited Inc. for its Smart Livestock Advancing Terrestrial Ecosystems Project.
- $580,000 to the United Prairie Foundation for its Grazed Wildlife Habitat – Meadowlark Initiative.

Riehl Point of View Gina Riehl

We have had a few weeks of very interesting and damaging weather in the area. I watched the storm chasers online as they traveled up and down the interstate and roads of North Dakota, praying that people would be safe from the tornados and damaging storms. Thankfully, no one was injured.

I attended the parade in Raleigh on Saturday. A dear friend Trella and her hubby came down to watch and enjoy. Attendance seemed to be down a bit this year, but there was still plenty of fun to be had. It’s so good to visit with friends, families and neighbors that return for the occasion. Arlene and Roy Riehl were blessed with having their daughter Stacey and her daughters and their families attend. I guess that would be four generations together. That definitely is a blessing. Hilda and Ernie Hinderer were in attendance as well. The tractor trek had about 60 tractors from the area joining in for the parade. PJ Deichert had 20+ tractors all driven by family members. The 4H Sagebrush Riders celebrated their 75th anniversary with ice cream and cupcakes after the meal.

I’m thankful that even though I can’t attend every game the grands play, sometimes I get to watch livestream. That is what I was able to do this weekend. Canaan had a baseball tournament in Dickinson, and so I was excited to watch him play and his team win the tournament. This week I will be going to attend some games in person for the other boys.

Happy birthday to Delvin LaDuke, Arlene Riehl, Don & Dan Miller, and my son in love Rhys Luger. Happy Independence Day to all. I am so thankful that we are free to worship God.

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.”

Selfridge News Debbie Vollmuth

The sky put on quite a show Friday night with all the lightning. Thankfully, we did not receive the real bad weather that could have come our way.

The Selfridge School Superintendent, Kristi Miller is retiring June 30. She has worked hard to get grants, facilitate the building of the new school addition, and all the other details that make up the job. Thank you, Mrs. Miller, for your years of service, as teacher, principal, and Superintendent. Best wishes for a long and joy filled retirement. A new Superintendent has been hired and will officially start on July 1. Joyce Miller, Selfridge School business manager is also stepping down from her duties as of June 30. She has kept the finances straight and helped with so many questions that have come up. She will continue to work at the Flasher School. Best wishes to Joyce in all her future endeavors. Haylee Kraft has been hired as the new Selfridge School business manager. She has been training for a while and will do a great job! Mike Every, School principal, has resigned and will be moving to Harvey. He was a great addition to our school and will be missed. The school is currently interviewing candidates for the principal position. Selfridge Assembly of God Church will have its Fellowship dinner (potluck) following service on July 6. Everyone is welcome! Wednesdays is the Freedom Bible Study at 7pm. It is aimed at freedom from addictions. Saturdays is prayer and praise at 5pm. The church will be taking a bus to the Hettinger Armory for the program, “Parables of Jesus”. This is on July 6, bus will leave from the church at 4:30. Please contact Pastor Rsndy Hahne for more information. For July only, the Food and Clothing Pantry will be on July 23rd, the fourth Wednesday instead of the 3rd Wednesday. Pastor Randy and Hazel have another commitment. Haying season is in full swing, be patient with slow moving vehicles on the road, and give those farmers/ranchers room to help feed the world! Thanks to all who showed up to work on the fire hall. A special thank you goes out to Andy Deason and his family for their expertise and hard work. Bonnie Volk and her niece, Tammy Schatz participated in the Craft Fair at the AmVets on Saturday. Have a fun, safe 4th of July! Remember this is a holiday to honor and respect our freedom and those who brought it to us. Happy birthday Jenny Four and David Deason.
